whether it be of new Furniture or Carpets, new Wall Papers or Floor Coverings of any description, always look the matter up thoroughly. Come to us. Read the ads. Perhaps some little suggestion from us will be just what you are wishing to know to start you on the right road. We are here for that purpose, so don't feel afraid to ask us questions. Our showing has never been as complete as at the present time, and the quantity which we handle enables us to quote lower prices than any concerns in this section.

Today we are showing a window of Sectional Book Cases. It shows how adaptable they are to rooms that are small and seemingly crowded with furniture by placing the case alongside and under the windows of the same. The sectional idea in book cases is the one worth considering. Oak sections, $2.50, 2.75, 3.00, 3.75. Large double sections in quartered oak, $6.00. Mahogany and weathered oak finish are to be had in any of the following makes: Gunn, Globe-Wernicke, Danner and Macey. Catalogues giving full descriptions can be had of us for the asking.

TENDERED A RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Cameron Honored by 200 Guests.

An informal reception was held last evening from 8 to 10 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Coburn of Orange street, in honor of the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Cameron. The affair was a grand success, there being 200 guests present to congratulate them. The guests were shown to the cloak rooms by Miss Madeline Rodgers and Elizabeth Mathewson and were then received by Mrs. Alex. Coburn, Mrs. M. E. Williams and Mrs. F. T. Cutler. The evening was spent in a social way and light refreshments of coffee, cake, punch and wafers were served by the Misses Maude E. Coburn, Christine McQueen, Nina Bates and Cora Batchelder. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron received a well filled purse of gold, from their many friends, who wish them many more anniversaries.

The guests present from out of town were Charles Wiggins of Montpelier, Mrs. Phoebe Davis of Goffstown, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Williams of Craftsbury, Philo Warren of Wollaston, I. C. Cameron of Worcester, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sibley of East Montpelier.

The following poem was written for the occasion by Miss Blanch Tilden:

It was in the month of April,
Just fifty years ago,
A youth and maid were wedded
For fortune or for woe.

The maiden's name was Helen,
Sylvester was the man,
She of the house of Warren,
He from the Cameron clan.

Yet 'twas no Scottish chieftain,
But Yankee born and bred,
Who pledged his faith to Helen
The day the two were wed.

The days for them were happy
Till war's shrill cry was heard
And forth he went to duty
With no complaining word.

Three years and more of service
He gave his country's need,
Returning not to kindred
Till freedom reigned indeed.

Two daughters came to bless them,
Their home and love to share,
And now when age is coming on
They freely give their care.

My friend, this story we are telling
You know by heart full well,
The measure of its griefs and joys
There's none but you can tell.

A special boon to you is given,
'Tis few indeed can say
We've walked together fifty years
Along life's devious way.

Now at this golden milestone
We grasp your hands to-day,
And ask for your portion
Of blessings while you stay.

And as your sun advances
Toward the western border line,
May its setting rays reflected
Give you joy and hope divine.

for its well-dressed men, and a great deal of the credit for this condition belongs to the great wholesale tailors, who have developed the making of ready-to-wear clothes into an art. Chief among these progressive business houses is that of L. Adler Bros. & Co. and A. Shuman & Co., for whose products we have exclusive sale. These firms have hewed closely to the line of quality, and these garments rank with the best grade of made-to-order, in both style and durability.
